We couldn't direct deposit your 2025 Form 1040-SR refund

What you need to know

We couldn't process your direct deposit due to one of the following:

- Your financial institution rejected the refund due to an invalid bank account number.
- A bank account number wasn't provided on your tax return.
- Your bank account could not be validated.

NOTE: When your refund is issued, it may be subject to offset if you have other outstanding liabilities.

What you need to do

You have 30 days to provide us:

- A new or updated bank account number.
- Update your direct deposit information by visiting IRS.gov/Account or use the QR code to access your online account.

Additional information

Note: IRS employees cannot update bank account information.

- Visit IRS.gov/CP53E
- You can contact your financial institution to ask why your direct deposit was rejected.
- Executive Order 14247, mandates the transition to electronic payments for all Federal disbursements, including tax refunds, except under certain circumstances. Refer to IRS.gov/ModernPayments for more information.
- If you can't provide a new or updated bank account number, contact us at 866-325-4066 for more information.

Your refund increased to $7.46 because your penalty for failing to pay estimated tax payments was reduced

We reviewed your 2025 Form 1040-SR and found the penalty on your return exceeded the maximum amount that could be legally charged.

What you need to know

You don't need to respond to this notice. If you haven't already received a refund check for $7.46, you should receive it within 4 – 6 weeks if you don't owe other tax or debts we're required to collect. See your personalized refund date as soon as the IRS processes your tax return and approves your refund at IRS.gov/Where's-My-Refund.

Account summary

Description	Amount
Tax you owed
Failure to pay proper estimated tax penalty	$1,466.00
Other payments and credits	$49.54
Refund due	-$1,523.00
	$7.46

If you were in a federally declared disaster area, you may have been granted additional time to file returns and pay taxes. We considered any such time when we computed your penalty.

Penalties

We are required by law to charge applicable penalties. However, in select situations, we may be able to remove or reduce penalties. Visit IRS.gov/Penalties to learn more.

Failure to pay proper estimated tax (Internal Revenue Code 6654)

Total failure to pay proper estimated tax	$49.54
---	---------

When you don't pay enough taxes due for the year with your quarterly estimated tax payments and you don't have enough withholding, we charge a penalty for not properly estimating your tax. For information about estimated tax requirements, download Instructions for Form 2210 or Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax (Publication 505) from IRS.gov or call us for a copy.

Note: The penalty amount shown here may differ from the amount shown on this notice. The computation shown here may include late payment penalty on amounts due before the adjustment.
